CORAM : SMT.NISHITA MHATRE, J.

DATED : 14TH JULY 2005

P.C. :

. The Complaint has been filed by the Respondent No.1 Union alleging unfair labour practice against the Respondent No.2 Contractor since he is not paying wages on par with the wages paid to the employees of the principal employer i.e. the Petitioners herein. The Petition has been filed against the order dated 7th March 2005 passed by the Industrial Court, Pune in Complaint (ULP) No.219 of 2003 holding that it has jurisdiction to entertain the Complaint. There is no need to interfere with this order of the Industrial Court. The submission made on behalf of the Petitioners is that no allegations have been made against them in the Complaint and, therefore, the Complaint should be dismissed. However, before the Industrial Court the contention raised on behalf of the Petitioners is that the Complaint itself is not maintainable. I see no reason to differ from the view taken by the Industrial Court. Hence, Petition dismissed.
